

"Here at Hazmat Acres we take pride in our beautiful mystery mounds."

1. Who is "we" in the cartoon?
2. What does this cartoon suggest about how non-Natives view the "mounds" in the Midwest?
3. How are the "mounds" presented in the cartoon?
4. Visit these website to learn about the Mississippian Moundbuilders, Cahokia and other Native builders of mounds:

<http://www.mississippian-artifacts.com/>

<http://asms.k12.ar.us/armem/hopper/Builders.htm>

<http://www.nativeamericans.com/MoundBuilders.htm>

4. How would you feel about people building homes on your family gravesite? Is this allowed in your town?
5. How much of your town's history is preserved? What do you think your town or community will look like in 200 years? What do you think should be preserved? Why?